

Kindergarten teacher Paula Cox has been teaching at Destiny Christian School for the past 3 years. She is a graduate of Eastern Nazarene College. Mrs. Cox came to Destiny School with 5 years of experience in Pre-K 4 as well as 17 years of experience in a Kindergarten classroom.

Mrs. Cox loves to make her classroom environment alive, fun filled and engaging for the children, as well as herself. Every corner of the room is inviting and provides opportunity for learning. You never know what will be happening when you step through the doors!

Mrs. Cox is excited to be teaching Kindergarten again this year. When it comes to teaching Kindergarten, each year is different than the year before. As a teacher, Mrs. Cox is always on the search for new ideas, different approaches or a better way of teaching a lesson. This year Mrs. Cox is going to be the cluster team leader for the preschool classes through second grade. She will be helping coordinate themes, events, field trips and cooperative learning activities for her cluster. Her team has already met and begun their plans for the upcoming school year. She is anticipating an awesome year!

Mrs. Cox is a recent transplant from Pennsylvania. She and her family moved to Rochester 3 years ago. She lives in Greece with her husband, Jim, and her children, Whitney and Logan. They have a Golden Retriever named Zeus and a cat named Elvis.

Mrs. Cox is a passionate follower of Jesus Christ. She is active in her home church where she is involved in teaching an adult Sunday School class, works with Women's Ministries and is director of Children's Ministries.
